KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Patric Young, founder of The Patric Young Foundation and author of "Sit to Rise", had to sit to learn to walk again. Ten days before his wedding, a single-vehicle accident left Patric paralyzed from the waist down. The former University of Florida men's basketball standout is on a mission to challenge people to live with purpose.

Rodney T. Blunt, founder of City Streets to Student Athletes, Inc. and former athlete at Clemson University will captivate you, leave you motivated and feeling empowered. With over 25 years of law enforcement experience, CS2SA is credited for launching a Drug-Free Pledge movement that's reaching student athletes all around the country.

Madison Schemitz was a standout high school softball player. On 6.3.2023, she was viciously attacked and stabbed. She survived but was paralyzed from the chest down. Madison's extraordinary story of resilience, grit, and determination has captured the hearts of many. She continues to share her story with the world hoping to inspire, help, and motivate others.
